

Chapter 5: Summary

Summary

We've accomplished a lot today! We've added several functions to our program. We can move forward and backward through our list now, display two views in tabs, and sort our list.

Next time, we'll see what we can do with more of Java's collections before we wrap things up. It's hard to believe there's only one more lesson to go!

I'll see you next time for Lesson 12.
