

Lesson 9 Assignment

Your assignment for this lesson is to take the window you designed for the previous lesson (Lesson 8) and use listeners to make at least three of the actions work as you would like them to. You can attach the listeners to menu items, buttons, or other components in the window. Let me know what questions you have or problems you run into so we can sort them out.